#18-0088

The payment of the fees set forth in La. R.S. 13:5807.5 is not contingent upon whether the City Court subsequently collects money from the non-governmental party requesting service. Pursuant, to La. R.S. 13:4521, unless specifically excepted, deferred courts costs assessed against a governmental entity or its agents, officers, or employees are due within thirty days of the judgment becoming final. (Lester)

Op to Mr. Jim Liner, Marshal, City of Ruston, Ruston, LA

Date Released: November 5, 2019

#19-0104

La. R.S. 18:18

The form Election Day – Voters' Bill of Rights and Informational Poster is compliant with Louisiana law and is approved for printing and distribution. (Wale)

Op to Mr. R. Kyle Ardoin, Secretary of State, State of Louisiana, Baton Rouge, LA

Date Released: November 5, 2019

#19-0039

Only "law enforcement officers" with the authority of a "peace officer" as provided by law may enforce the provisions of the Louisiana Highway Regulatory Act. The City may not authorize non-law enforcement officers to enforce the provisions of the Louisiana Highway Regulatory Act. Thus, civilian employees of a private contractor are not authorized to enforce limited provisions of the Louisiana Highway Regulatory Act concerning investigations of traffic accidents and issuing citations. (Smith)

Op to Honorable LaToya Cantrell, Mayor, City of New Orleans, New Orleans, LA

Date Released: November 7, 2019
